THE BULLETIN:

BY E. H. BRITTON,

OFFICE.....NO. 16 TRYON STREET,
Over Odell Hall, on the second floor.

TERMS FOR PAPER:

☞ THE DAILY BULLETIN will be furnished at SIX DOLLARS per annum, IN ADVANCE.

☞ THE TRI-WEEKLY BULLETIN will be published every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday morning, and supplied for $4 00 per annum, payable in advance.

BY TELEGRAPH.

The Southern Express Company forward packages by Passenger Trains and Steamers, and Despatches by Telegraph, to all parts of the Country.

☞ We received nothing by Telegraph up to the hour of putting our first Edition to press.

Spies and Traitors.

The Nashville Union is of the impression that the late movements of the enemy disclose the fact that they have received important information from spies in our midst. They would never have ventured to Florence, Alabama, with their gunboats if they had not known that country to be undefended by soldiers. Let a stricter watch be kept upon suspicious persons, and let them be summarily dealt with, if detected.

High Prices of Negroes.

The negroes belonging to the estate of James W. Reeve, late of DeKalb County, Alabama, were sold on Thursday last, at Decatur, on twelve months credit, at the following prices:

Dan, twenty-five years old, $1,400.

Henry, twenty-five years old, $1,412.

Jerry, sixteen years old, one finger off, $1,601.

Caroline, twenty-two years old, one eye, not very stout, and with a child two years old, $1,377.

New Orleans is represented as having been made almost impregnable. The shell road and every avenue of approach to the city are defended by very powerful batteries, sweeping them for miles, while on either side felled trees form an impenetrable abattis out into the swamp. Our force is full 50,000, under Maj. Gen. Lovell.

Is NASHVILLE SAFE?—It seems to be seriously threatened. Two trains left here yesterday, and one last night, says the Atlanta Confederacy of Tuesday, to bring Government stores from that city.

The Memphis Argus says, that when the Federal gunboat Conestoga fired on Fort Henry, the jar disabled her, knocked her chimneys off, sprung her pilot house, and, it is supposed, her butts, rendering her useless, except to show that a gunboat ought not to carry more metal than it can work with safety to herself.

CATAWBA JOURNAL,

AND

THE DAILY BULLETIN,

PUBLISHED BY

E. H. BRITTON,

CHARLOTTE, N. C.

THESE Papers (embracing the TRI-WEEKLY BULLETIN) established in the town of Charlotte, N. C., affords unusual advantages to Advertisers both at home and abroad, as the editions, weekly, now exceed

SIX THOUSAND COPIES,

which we have no doubt are read by at least

TWENTY THOUSAND

persons each week, a large proportion of whom are Planters and their families.

As a means of Advertising we are confident that great advantages can be obtained through this establishment, hence we embrace this opportunity to inform our friends and the Mercantile communities on the Seaboard, (Charleston and Wilmington,) that our facilities for circulating their business Notices throughout Western North Carolina and the adjoining Districts in South Carolina are extensive and complete.

Our terms are liberal and a large deduction will be made on the bills of Contract Advertisers.

COFFEE! COFFEE!

IS MANUFACTURED AT M. KELLY'S Southern Excelsior Coffee Mill, Raleigh, and is equal to the best coffee. It is made of coffee, rye and chickory, and is roasted in a cylinder by machinery, and therefore is better parched than can be done by hand. Chickory is not so well known in Dixie land, but in Europe they use it to give a superior flavor to the coffee. In Germany they call it sagorah, and here we call it dandalion. In England it is so highly appreciated that they lay a duty of two pounds ten shillings sterling per hundred weight to protect the growers of it. We annex Professor Emmons' certificate to show that there is no humbug, but it is what it is represented to be:

To MR. KELLY, Sir: I have tested and used the two samples of manufactured coffee—the labelled Java and Laguira. The first equals the Rio coffee of the shops, and seems to be equally good with that kind. * * * I am satisfied that they contain nothing which is injurious to the system, and may be economically and safely used as substitutes for coffee.

E. EMMONS.

This coffee is put up in pound papers, and packed in boxes containing thirty-six pounds, unless otherwise ordered.

All orders promptly attended to by addressing M. KELLY,

PROSPECTUS

OF THE

HILLSBOROUGH RECORDER,

DEVOTED TO

POLITICS, AGRICULTURE, MISCELLANY, GENERAL NEWS.

PUBLISHED BY

DENNIS HEARTT.

HILLSBOROUGH, N. C.

WITH the present volume the RECORDER commenced the fortieth year of its existence, the first number having been issued the 10th of February, 1820; during all which time we have labored to make our paper interesting and useful, and we hope that in these particulars we have not been altogether unsuccessful. It has been our wish to make the RECORDER a good Family Paper, devoted to Politics, Agriculture, Miscellany, General News, &c., with a view to the entertainment and improvement of the farmers and citizens of the circle in which it is distributed. Our Agricultural department we endeavor to fill with the best selections we can make from all sources, giving preference to such as will be of practical use to the farmer and cultivator; and in this particular we hope to make the RECORDER as valuable to the agriculturist as any periodical of a purely agricultural character. In our Miscellaneous department, we shall continue to be, as we have always been, careful to select such articles as will have a tendency not only to amuse, but to improve the mind and heart. While we shall be thankful to receive well-written articles to adorn our columns, we are not so ambitious of originality as not to prefer selected matter of superior merit, to loosely-written and ill-digested articles, though ornamented at the top with the coveted words—"Written expressly for the RECORDER." In our News department we shall take especial pains to present to our readers the latest intelligence, and to enable us to do so we have facilities equal to those enjoyed in any portion of the State, except those favored with telegraphic communication.

A single copy, one year	$2 00
Six copies, one year	10 00
Ten copies, one year	15 00

Payment always in advance.

Any of our old subscribers who will obtain five subscribers and send us the cash, shall receive their own paper free of charge.

Take Notice.

FROM THIS DATE, our Books are positively closed to all. Cash will, in every instance, be required, without distinction of persons.

A MOVE FOR CHARLESTON.

Received at Telegraph Office, Feb. 16, at Bulletin Office, 9:45 p. m.

RICHMOND, Feb. 14.—The Baltimore Republican of the 4th says accounts from Port Royal &c., to the 10th are at hand. The fleet en route from Port Royal for Savannah, is is expected, landed 8,000 troops on Monday night. The Federal forces destroyed the water pipes leading to the city, driven in river. They were cut fifteen feet below the surface.

Twelve Regiments are under marching orders to leave Port Royal on Monday, inland, to Railroad, thence to Charleston. Three Regiments of Cavalry to join them.

Two simultaneous movements were to be made—one to the Railroad direct, the other to the vicinity of Edisto Island.

A large number of regiments are arriving at Port Royal and much heavy ordnance. Many buildings are being erected at Port Royal, including a large hospital.

Whiskey is selling at Beaufort and Hilton Head at eighteen dollars per gallon.

The Baltic was to leave for New York with 530 bales of cotton.

Breastworks, seven miles long, across the Island, were nearly finished.

An arrival from Ship Island with dates to the 23d ultimo gives information of the capture of the steamer Lewis and schooner View, laden with goods valued at $60,000.

The Stephen Art, sailing under a British flag has been seized off Key West. Her cargo embraced rifled cannon, enfield rifles, powder, shoes, &c., valued at $125,000.

Two regiments are on Ship Island and reinforcements expected.

ELIZABETH CITY RE-TAKEN

Received at Telegraph Office Feb. 16, at Bulletin Office, 10:20 p. m.

RICHMOND, Feb. 16.—The latest information from Edenton, via Suffolk, is up to Thursday, when the Yankees had quiet possession, their Pickets extending 6 miles this way.

On Wednesday afternoon the Yankees ascended the Chowan, to Holly's wharf, eight miles from the mouth of the river, but finding nobody but a few negroes they raised a white flag and passed over to Cole Rains, on the opposite side of the river. What they did at Cole Rain is unknown. Col. Mitchell, militia commander in Chowan county was at Edenton when the Yankees arrived. He conversed with a Yankee captain and was assured that they did not intend to interfere with private property nor disturb the citizens not in arms.

When Col. Mitchell left Edenton, a few old cannon had been destroyed and some cotton had been removed to the gun boats. No other depredations.

The Yankees landed near the farm of Monroe Whedbee, in the vicinity of Elizabeth City, and robbed him of every thing.

The Militia force of Chowan county are removing all provisions from the river.

Refugees continue to reach Suffolk.—Rev. Mr. Amis, Mr. Hataway, and families, reached Suffolk last night. Only a dozen ladies are remaining at Edenton.

The Confederates took possession of Elizabeth City on Friday, when the Yankees fled to their gun boats. A few were taken prisoners by the Confederates. Our flag again waves over Elizabeth City.

Northern News.

Received at Telegraph Office Feb. 16, at Bulletin office, 11:10 p. m.

RICHMOND, Feb. 16.—Northern papers of the 13th have been received.

The New York Herald continues its extravigant jubilation over the affair at Roanoke Island. It says thirty killed in the army and twenty of the naval force; wounded, 140. Captured six forts, forty guns, over two thousand prisoners, and 3,000 small arms.

It says McClelland has received a dispatch that Price evacuated Springfield on Wednesday.

Lincoln has issued orders releasing all political prisoners in custody of military authorities in every quarter, on parole; to afford no aid to the enemies government, —spies excepted.

Lincoln says as the rebellion is now manifestly on the decline, severe measures formerly resorted to, being no longer necessary.

Naval appropriation bill passed House with amendment appropriating $15,000,000 for additional gun boats; $1,000,000 for an Ordnance Foundry.

The Ariel has arrived from Aspinwall with $614,000 specie.

The news from Central America is important. Advices from Venezuela state that the country is in great commotion.

A British steamer has arrived at New York with a cargo of East India cotton.—Market irregular, 28 to 30 cents; corn 65¢.

Dispatches from S. Louis dated night of 14th says, 20 killed 2,50 wounded at Fort Donelson, up to that time. Fighting desparate; terrible.

Official dispatches from Burnside dated Goldsboro, have been received at Washington.

Latest from Fort Donalson.

Received in Charlotte, Feb. 18, at Bulletin office 12:00 a. m.

Fort Donalson, Feb. 16, 10:30, a. m.—One of the fiercest battles on record commenced this morning about 7 o'clock, on our left wing.

Our Brothers

BY ANNA WORD.

Oh! high in the wintry wailing,
As it moans upon the air;
Out, out in the whistling darkness,
Thro' the forest shivering—here!
The sleet falls down; and so coldly
Falls the troublous weary sound
On the heart, in its restless numbers,
Ere it falls to the crusted ground.

There are white tents stretched on the Border,
Standing amid the snow—
Homes of the bravest and truest,
Where the trembling snow-flowers blow;
And out in the wintry tempest,
The whistling wind and sleet,
Are walking our shivering Brothers:
Oh! the tread of their weary feet!

Their tread! Oh! it falls on the snow-crust,
Breaking the snow-flower's sleep;
And their lips—aye their brave lips quiver,
And eyes that do seldom, may weep;
For alone at his post in the moonlight,
The brave feels a kiss on his brow;
He weeps for a moment—but starting,
Keeps his still night-watch in the snow.

How many on beds of sick anguish,
Lie writhing in torturing pain;
No sister's kind hand or a Mother's
To soothe or to gladden again!
And many, how many! have ceased.
The march of their weary feet,
And sleep: with snow for their pillow,
And snow for their winding sheet.

Oh! the wind in the darkness is wailing,
And down comes the torturing sleet;
But the colder Border is sounding,
To the tread of sentinel feet,
Shivering forms 'neath their blankets
Dream of the home ones dear,
Of the ones, who think of the soldier
Always with a prayer and a tear.

God temper the wind and snow storm
To the soldier's quivering cheek!
Oh! temper the wind's deep wailing
To his pathway, cold and bleak!
Give him strength, Oh! God to meet nobly
The foe, alike and the sleet;
Take the sting of the cold from the snow-path,
Where tread his sentinel feet.

THE ENEMY IN THE SAVANNAH RIVER.—Yesterday morning Henry Carrier, a free man of color, who has been for some time past engaged in the service of keeping the telegraph wires between this city and Fort Pulaski in order, went down to put up the wires, which had been cut on Wednesday. He was accompanied by two oarsmen, and went down the South Channel. When he got to the gap, opposite Venus' Point, within some ten miles of the city, he discovered a Yankee boat, manned by some ten men, making towards him, evidently with the intention of capturing him.—Carrier immediately turned back, and he and the Yankees had a brisk race for two or three miles. The Yankees finding that Carrier was gaining on them, ceased their pursuit, and fired four shots at his boat, all of which fell short.—Savannah News.

FROM SKIDAWAY.—The latest intelligence we have from this point is up to twelve o'clock yesterday. At that time there were nineteen Federal vessels lying at anchor off our batteries. Some of the war vessels were stripped of their masts and yards, as if preparing for action.—Ibid.

We have no later intelligence from Fort Pulaski, as the Ida did not go down yesterday, and the telegraphic wires between the city and the fort have been cut by the Yankees. We understand that a boat will go down to-morrow.—Ibid.

FROM TYBEE.—The steamer Robt. Habersham went to Fort Pulaski yesterday, and returned last evening. We learn that there are eight Federal vessels in Wall's Cut, the greater portion of them steamers. They have a dredging vessel at work cleaning out the channel. There are five Federal vessels off Tybee.—Savannah News, Feb. 13.

THE FOREIGN ELEMENT.—There are no less than 3,000 Irishmen in the Confederate army at Columbus, Ky! The Irish officers there have held a meeting, and resolved to organize an Irish brigade. An eloquent address had been issued by them to their fellow countrymen in the army of the Western Department, appealing to them to aid in the enterprise.

THE STUFF THAT SOUTHERN HEROES ARE MADE OF.—We learn from reliable authority that the Savannah Cadets, learning that General Jackson, on account of their tender age, was somewhat doubtful of the propriety of receiving them into the State service, under the recent order of the Governor, presented yesterday an earnest protest against his decision, expressing deep disappointment at not being allowed to prepare for and to meet the enemies of their country.

This protest did not fail to produce the desired effect, and they are now enrolled amongst the soldiery of Georgia.

Surely the God of Battles will smile upon the young heroes and upon their mothers who have given them to their country.

Whiskey Distilleries.

This subject is attracting considerable interest in most of the Southern States.—The following bill has passed the Legislature of Tennessee:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Tennessee, That it shall not be lawful for any person or persons in this State to purchase and distil any kind of grain into spirituous liquors during the existence of the present war with the United States.

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, That for each and every violation of this act the offender or offenders shall be punishable by presentment or indictment, and upon conviction shall be fined not less than five hundred dollars and imprisoned not less than one month.

SEC. 3. Be it further enacted, That the several judges of the Circuit and Criminal Courts of this State shall give this act in charge to their respective grand juries.

SEC. 4. Be it further enacted, That a distillation of all the grain raised or produced by the distiller and the purchase of other supplies to take its place for his own use shall make him punishable under this act.

SEC. 5. Be it further enacted, That this act shall take effect from and after its passage.

The News.

Highly important news will be found under Telegraphic head this morning.

Capt. Wm. A. Owens.

We learn by our Raleigh exchanges that our highly esteemed fellow-citizen, Capt. Wm. A. Owens, the present Mayor of Charlotte, who commanded the Hornets Nest Rifle Company, 1st Regiment North Carolina Volunteers, at Bethel, has been elected Major of the 24th Regiment, North Carolina Volunteers, and has accepted the post. His old corps delight in his promotion but are loth to be separated from him.

Gen. J. G. Martin.

This noble and chivalrous military chieftain was to have left Raleigh on Friday last to take charge of and command the militia forces in the neighborhood of Weldon.

The following Order from His Excellency, GOV. CLARKE, discloses the duty assigned Gen. MARTIN:

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
Raleigh, February 13th, 1862.

MAJOR GEN. J. G. MARTIN,
General-in-Chief of the Forces in North Carolina:

GEN.: You will proceed immediately to Weldon and such points in the North Eastern Counties of this State as you may think necessary—call into service such portions of the Militia as may be deemed necessary and can be used effectively, and make such disposition of them as circumstances and the public safety may suggest and require, for the defence of the State.

* * * * *

Such of the officers of your Staff as you may deem expedient may be employed by you on this service, and may accompany you on the same.

[Signed] HENRY T. CLARK,
Governor Ex-officio.

The following officers accompany Gen. MARTIN as members of his Staff:

Lieutenant-Colonel A Gordon, Assistant Adjutant General.
Major John Devereux, Quarter Master.
Major John C. Winder, Aid-de-camp.
Major Thomas D. Hogg, Commissary.
Surgeon, Richard B. Haywood.

From Roanoke Island.

From the Wilmington Journal.]

This morning we had the pleasure of meeting Lieut. Smith, of Wise's Legion, who has kindly given us some details of the affair at Roanoke Island. The most pleasing part of information is that the number of the killed on our side has been greatly exaggerated. Some one or two from nearly every company engaged, and nearly every one of our companies was engaged, succeeded in making their escape, after the battle had closed. From them L. Smith obtained details of the killed and wounded and from all he could learn he could not find that our loss in killed could much, if at all, exceed fifty. The number of wounded would no doubt exceed that of the killed.

The forces at the post, at the commencement of the fight or before its close were.

This is not the full strength of any of the commands named, but many were sick and had been sent off or were at Nag's Head in Hospital. Some were in a battery on a flat near the main land and three small companies were at Nag's Head.

The number that escaped, including the sick at Nag's Head, might be not incorrectly stated about 450, or at the utmost 500. Of these, 250 or 300 retreated along the beach from Nag's Head, on Saturday night, after having set fire to the buildings. Some got over in a boat to the main land; nearly or quite all of those on the floating battery also got off to the main land.

The Roanoke Affair.

Extract of a special dispatch from Norfolk to the Richmond Dispatch.

One of General Henningsens's men called at a house near Elizabeth City, N. C. and asked for a drink of water, when the man of the house called him "a d——d rebel," and fired at him, the shot striking him in the forehead. Henningsen's men opened fire on him killing him in his house, and then burnt the house and him in it.

Gen. H. is said to be in Edenton.

It is believed the mortar fleet is intended for this place. ACCOMAC.

FLAG OF TRUCE.—There was a flag of truce steamer yesterday. On her return she brought up the remainder of the Hatteras prisoners—numbering in all upwards of four hundred men. The following is a list of the officers among them:

Captains Thomas Sparrow, John C. Lamb and G. G. Luke.

Lieutenants A. J. Thomas, T. Norman, Whittle, C. A. Abrams, Ezell, M. Fatherly, N. Taylor, M. T. Moye, J. Whitehead.

[Norfolk Day Book.

A Norfolk correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch says:

There was communication yesterday with Fort Monroe, by flag of truce, and the steamer West Point, Capt. Reeve, which went down, brought up 395 prisoners released from Fort Warren, viz:

Commissioned officers,	15
Non-Commissioned—Ordnance Serg't,	1
Independent Greys,	24
Roanoke Guard,	46
Morris Guards,	20
Tar River Boys,	48
Hamilton Guards,	35

Washington Greys,	39
Lenoir Braves,	34
North Carolina Defenders,	21
Jonesville Guards,	45
From Santa Rosa,	22
Virginia Troops from Potomac,	8
	395

A colored man, taken at Hatteras, was also brought up.

The remains of three of the prisoners who died at Fort Warren, also came up in the steamer to be sent to their homes in North Carolina—viz: Geo. Sawyer, of the 7th Regiment N. C. Volunteers; Samuel Lahier, 2d Regiment; the name of the other I did not ascertain.

LETTER FROM SALISBURY.

Correspondence of the Bulletin.]

Liberal Contribution for Prisoners—Safety of some of the Mechanic Guards—Mess Arrangements—Hard Case, Bad Weather, &c. &c.

SALISBURY, N. C., Feb. 15, 1862.

Dear Bulletin:—The day after the sad news of the fall of Roanoke, there was a meeting called for the purpose of making contributions for the prisoners that were taken. There was a Committee of five appointed to solicit subscriptions, and they went to work the next day and raised seven hundred and fifty dollars, for which the Bank of Cape Fear here very willingly gave gold for, and that night Rev. A. W. Mangum started for Norfolk with the money for the unfortunate men.

Since that time, however, two of the Mechanic Guards have arrived at home and report that so far as they know 6 or 8 made their escape after the white flag was put up. The company from this place was held in reserve and did not get to fire a gun, for which they are very sorry. One of them, a Mr. Shoan, was slightly wounded, the rest were all taken prisoners and none of them hurt so far as is known.

Last night four hundred and ninety-two more prisoners arrived here, escorted by a Company of Frenchmen, from New Orleans.

There are some very hard cases in this town, one of which I cannot well keep from paying my particular respects to. The other day, when the Committee were going round soliciting money for the poor prisoners, they called upon him, and his remark was enough to sicken any true Southern man, his reply was, if there was any law to make him give any money he would give, if not he would not.

I do not think that a man who would talk in this way, and one who has not contributed one cent to carry on the war, ought to be allowed to take the oath of allegiance, but take his papers and leave for Yankeedoodledum.

The weather is truly bad to-day, rain, then sleet and then snow. If anything of importance transpires you may again hear from S.

We take the following paragraphs from the Pensacola Observer of the 9th inst:

THE FLEET.—The blockade off this bar consists of a large steam frigate and several small sailing vessel's notwithstanding the report that there were a hundred vessels outside.

FORT PICKENS.—The Yankee force at Fort Pickens numbers six thousand.

[Exchange.

It may be 6,000, or 10,000, but until they number ten to our one, trusting it the high military capacities of our leaders and the prowess of our arms, and the efficiency of our fortifications, the cause for which we are battling, and in Providence, we shall fear no danger whatever.

RUMORS.—Rumors are still rife here upon our streets, the truth or falsity of which we cannot say, but we think the times are critical—more so, inded, than we are aware of. We would, therefore, urge upon our citizens to re-organize. Drill, get arms, and be ready. The enemy, emboldened by some reverses of ours, may attempt an attack here. Pensacola must not fall into their hands by the lethargy of Pensacolians. Then, "to arms!" form companies again, and we think we know enough to say arms and ammunition can be procured.

A New Orleans grand jury has found true bill against some sixteen persons in that city for issuing "Shin-plasters."—They were ordered to give bond in the sum of $250 for their appearance when called for.

TO ARMS! TO ARMS!

MR. EDITOR:—In the face of the troubles that environ our beloved State—now that the enemy have invaded our borders, I wish to raise a company of gentlemen of grit, for the war. Who among the many that are laughing off the misfortunes that surround us will come forward to join? Skulkers and land pirates I don't expect to Volunteer—(they will be settled with hereafter,) but the true patriot, whether he is high or low, rich or poor, will cheerfully respond, now that a necessity appeals, I have no doubt.

I don't want to be Captain, or hold any office in said Company, but I want you fellow citizens, to come forward and wipe out the taunt that North Carolina is a "strip of land between two States." I am ready, and can be found at the store of Mr. Maody opposite the Court House from day to day until the Company is raised.

Any man that would plead the present stay law might want credit hereafter. Look out.

FORWARDING OFFICE
S. C. R. R. Co.
CHARLESTON, March 16, 1861.

THE South Carolina Railroad Company having determined to discontinue this department of the service, the undersigned, who has been the forwarding Agent of the Company for the last four or five years, has associated with him the Chief Clerk in the department, and, under the name of GANTT & STONY, will continue to RECEIVE and FORWARD such articles as may be consigned to his care. He trusts, by strict personal attention, to retain a very liberal share of the business of the department.

Parties are reminded that all goods now reaching this port from points beyond the Confederate States of America, must be entered at the Custom House, and that duties are payable on such as are not purchased on or before the 20th February last, and laden on shipboard on or before the 15th March instant, save such as are on the free list. It is therefore necessary that remittances be made to pay the duties where duties are payable, AND IN ALL CASES TO COVER THE EXPENSES OF CUSTOM HOUSE ENTRY, WHETHER THE GOODS ARE FREE OR NOT. Prompt compliance will prevent delay and expense, as all articles not entered and permitted will be stored by the Custom House officers. The South Carolina Railroad Company will advance, as heretofore, the charges of freight, drayage and wharfage, but not the expenses connected with the Custom House.

Rates of charges for forwarding will be very moderate, and may be had on application to GANTT & STONY, to whom all business communications should be addressed.

The undersigned refers to the officers of the South Carolina Railroad Company, to the customers of the Forwarding Department, and to all merchants of standing in the city of Charleston, and respectfully solicits a liberal share of patronage.

JAMES L. GANTT.
Late Forwarding Agent S. C. R. R. Co.

OF
THE CHARLESTON MERCURY
A POLITICAL, COMMERCIAL AND LITERARY NEWSPAPER
PUBLISHED DAILY AND TRI-WEEKLY

THE Mercury gives daily reports of the Market and Marine Intelligence in Charleston, and of Charleston commerce in the leading exports of the world. The Weekly Prices Current is made up with much care, and from the most reliable sources. Its connection with the "Associated Press" insures the latest intelligence by Telegraph and the earliest news by Steamers from Europe. It has an able and accomplished Correspondent in London (a gentleman connected with the editorial staff of the London Times,) and regular Correspondents in New York, Washington, New Orleans and Havana. The Letters from New York, Washington Letters and weekly letters on Life in Washington are additional attractions in favor of its lady readers. Its literary notices, from the pen of a gentleman who occupies perhaps the highest position among the literary men of the South, are discriminating and comprehensive.—Attention is paid to all matters of general concern, especially those in reference to the Planting and Agricultural interest, and to the current news of the day. Great care is taken that nothing shall appear in its columns which should be excluded from the family circle.

The political creed of the Mercury consists in the principles of the Democratic Party as laid down in the Virginia and Kentucky Resolutions of 1798 and 1799—the Sovereignty of the States; a strict construction of the Federal Constitution by the General Government, the agent of the States; Free Trade, and an economical Administration of the Government. Its policy is the Union of the Southern States in maintaining their rights.

Terms—Payable in Advance.

DAILY per annum.....$10.00
TRI-WEEKLY.....5.00

Clubs will be Furnished as follows:

Five Copies of the DAILY for.....$40.00
Five Copies of the TRI-WEEKLY.....20.00

The name of no person out of Charleston will be entered on our books, unless the payment of the subscription be made in advance. Nor will orders from without the city to publish Advertisements, Marriage Notices, or Obituaries, be attended to, unless the cash or an acceptable City reference, accompany the order. Money may always be forwarded at our risk in Registered Letters.

Postmasters are authorized to act as our Agents in obtaining subscribers and forwarding the money; and by sending us Five Daily subscribers, with $20 enclosed—or Five Tri-Weekly subscribers, with $10 enclosed, will be entitled to an extra copy; or if preferred, they may retain Twenty per Cent. of the pre-payments, for their trouble and to pay for the extra paper.

Out of South Carolina, no person whatever is authorized to collect debts already due to the Mercury.

We refer to Hon. Barnard E. Bee, in our Tayloe Circuit to whom subscribers and parties here wishing to remit money may apply.

We refer to Jared D. Sumter, Commissioner of the Peace, to any regular authorized collector who has failed to remit to us money now due the paper and to contract for future business.

Subscribers and others, in debt to us, are urgently requested to send in our dues by mail at the earliest period. By so doing they will save us much per cent. on account equ
